ERNEST CASHEL PAYS THE DEATH PENALTY

HANGED AT CALGARY THIS MORNING A FEW MINUTES AFTER EIGHT O'CLOCK.

He Confessed Himself Guilty of Murdering Isaac Rufus Belt, the Tail Creek Rancher. Object of Crime Said to be the Possession of Fifty Dollars. Radcliffe the Hangman.

(Bulletin Special Dispatch.)
Calgary, Feb. 2.—Ernest Cashel was hanged at the police barracks this morning. The drop fell at 8:06 o'clock. Cashel must have been dead at that minute or a second later, for the performance from the hangman's point of view was a complete success.

Cashel confessed to the crime yesterday morning. Rev. G. W. Kerby notified him of his intention of asking him a direct question this morning. He said: "Ernest, are you guilty?" "Yes," said Cashel, and broke down.

When he came out he was gaunt and ascended the scaffold with less indifference but with quite as much nerve as he went to trial, as he received his sentence, and as he escaped from the police barracks. There was just a small audience present.

Rev. Mr. Kerby was with Cashel from an early hour this morning. Cashel is reported to have passed a fairly good night. It was at 7:50 that the execution proceedings began.

First Radcliffe came in and pinioned Cashel's arms. Cashel flinched a bit at this but did not collapse.

The procession was formed, led by the condemned man and Rev. Mr. Kerby. As they arrived on the scaffold, Cashel asked Mr. Kerby to pray with him, which he did. Then Radcliffe put on the white cap, and adjusted the knot. Rev. Mr. Kerby began the Lord's prayer, and as he reached the "Deliver us from evil," the bolt shot out and Cashel was launched into eternity. Death was instantaneous.

It was a bleak cold morning on which Cashel went to his death. A cold chilly wind was blowing from the north and swept across the barracks campus. Gloom as the barracks is at all times, it never seemed more grim and forbidding than this morning. The sun was slow to shine and there was not the faintest appearance of a sunbeam to relieve the grimness of the scene. There were a few curious people who stopped outside anxious to get a look to see anything that could be seen, but they saw nothing of the tragedy.

PAKAN NOTES

(Correspondence.)

On January 25th at 4 p.m., at the Methodist church, Pakan, a large number of friends assembled to witness the marriage of George Erasmus, son of Peter Erasmus, to Amelia, daughter of Magnus Cromarty, both of this place. The young couple enter upon their new life with the kind wishes of their many friends.

Mr. Cromarty has almost completed the threshing for this year. Messrs. Mitchell and son are very busy this winter season.

The people of Pakan are looking forward to having in the near future, the pleasure of putting in an unanimous vote for their representative who they deem has served them so well in the past. As the Russians in this district are of the same mind, Mr. Oliver will doubtless get a solid vote here, should he see fit to run in the next election.

The teacher and scholars are very comfortable in their new building. The attendance has been most regular to the profit of the whole district.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT AT CARSTAIRS

A very sad case of accidental shooting took place at Carstairs, Alberta, on Wednesday morning, Jan. 27th, and as a result the nine-year-old son of Chas. Bates is dead; killed by the accidental discharge of a gun in his father's hands. The Bates family live about five miles southwest of Carstairs, and father and son were camping about fourteen miles from home cutting willow posts. They had erected a little shanty near where they were working and occasionally, when grouse were noticed, they would leave their work and shoot the birds. This particular morning the boy was driving the team and wagon and the father had just taken an unsuccessful shot at a couple of grouse. In order to follow the game he started to climb onto the wagon when the gun, probably by slipping against the wheel, was discharged and the shot entered the boy's back, breaking his spine. Mr. Bates drove immediately to his home, fourteen miles away, and Dr. Robinson, of Carstairs, was summoned; but the boy died less than an hour after he reached home.

On Thursday, Dr. Crawford, coroner, Calgary, and Constable Mansfield, of the Northwest Mounted Police, held an inquest. The coroner's jury brought in the following verdict:

"That Lester Bates came to his death from the effects of a gunshot wound caused by the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of his father, Chas. Bates."

The mother and father are nearly prostrated with grief. The family are Americans and new comers in the country.

ALBERTA COLLEGE

(Correspondence).

Principal Riddell had charge of the morning service in McDougall Methodist church and also of the evening service in Strathcona on Sunday last.

The college has been favored this week with a number of visits from those interested in the welfare of the institution. Mr. Riddell gives a warm welcome to those desirous of inquiring into the workings of our institution.

Glee club practice has been going on as usual, and, from the number attending, seems to be claiming due attention. Considerable music has been obtained and matters put on a good basis for enjoyable and beneficial practice.

The attendance of a number of pupils during Saturday afternoon for the purpose of practice along their several lines, is an evidence of the interest and zeal taken in the work. Palmer's new system of writing has evidently taken the student body by storm. They are all having a race for it, to the great satisfaction of all. Mr. Palmer's future prospects are exceedingly bright. The pen is mightier than the sword and a great deal safer.

Scott's novel has stood the test. We are sorry Scott has been ill for some time, but we hope to soon see him around again and ready for some more Latin, etc.

The students are anxious to know what the Principal is going to do with that new song. Suggestions are being made, but time will tell. (Prof.) Decline Bona puella, Mr. L. (Mr. L.) Really Professor, I would rather not.

(Prof.) Mr. L. I really cannot. (Mr. L.) I really cannot. (Prof.) You must learn now while in college. Prepare for life, you know.

SPORTS

HOCKEY

EDMONTON HOCKEY BOYS ARE WHITE.

The Ponoka Herald of a recent issue says: "While at Edmonton last week the writer had the pleasant privilege of witnessing the hockey match between Edmonton and Wetaskiwin, and attending the complimentary banquet given the visitors after the game. While the game resulted in somewhat of a defeat for the visiting team, the game was a very good exhibition of hockey. Edmonton boasts the best hockey and curling rinks in the west, and they are certainly a credit to that coming metropolis. They were created by R. Seard, and are all that money can make them. The banquet was held at the Criterion restaurant, was attended by over fifty persons, and was a most enjoyable function. It may truly be said that the Edmonton hockey boys are a white lot of fellows and know how to entertain a visiting team."

FUR BUYERS PLAY HOCKEY.

Hockey teams representing Ross Bros. and Revillon Freres, met in a friendly hockey match on Thistle rink last night. Revillon's team appeared larger than their opponents, but as a team were neither as quick or as clever stick handlers. The game was interesting, but appeared rather slow after the very fast senior games between Edmonton and Strathcona. It would require quite a stretch of the imagination to call the game good hockey, as there was too much of the shiny feature about it. The end of the game showed Ross Bros. the victors by a score of 4 to 2. The lineup of the teams was as follows:

G. St. Germain	Goal.	Dodge	Point.
D. McKay	Collins	Cover Point.	Morden
G. McKay	Stevens	R. Johnson	R. McKinnon
Norm. Spies	Centre.	G. Banford	Right Wing.
D. Savard	H. Paradis	Lauree	Goalkeeper

THE JACKSON CUP.

The Ponoka Reporter says: "Now that Calgary has got Cashed, what will they do for excitement? They might now find Jackson's trophy cup for the Edmonton hockey lads."

Edmonton hockey team will play against Strathcona this evening with out Banford's points in Robertson will play in his stead. Hugh Campbell will referee the match.

LACOMBE WINS OUT.

Wetaskiwin, Feb. 2.—Lacombe defeated Wetaskiwin in a very fast hockey match last night by a score of seven to nothing. Lacombe played a whirlwind game and played Wetaskiwin off their feet. The lineup of the teams was as follows:

Lacombe	Goal.	Wetaskiwin
Watson	Temple	Point.
Flummeier	Montgomery	Cover Point.
Chalk	Marphy	Rover.
B. Johnstone	W. Sharpe	Right Wing.
L. Rainforth	Brea	Centre.
J. Williams	McDonough	Left Wing.
B. Williams	Aylmer

S. Humeaton was on the ice last night in the senior hockey practice for the first time since his accident. He will not play in Strathcona this evening.

The Fort Saskatchewan Reporter stated that the Fort's hockey team is having regular practices and will shortly make a trip to Edmonton.

The third game in the series for the Federation cup, Edmonton hockey seniors, vs. Strathcona seniors, takes place on Strathcona rink this evening. The game is bound to be a good one and Strathcona asserts that this is her turn to win.

CURLING

Many of the numerous prizes and trophies to be competed for at the Edmonton curling bonspiel Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week are on exhibition in the window of Jas. A. Stover's hardware store. Many of the prizes are too large to conveniently go into the window, and a couple of the trophies are out of town.

Fraser and MacKenzie play in the Calgary Bowling cup competition this evening. This is the only regular match posted.

W. R. STEWART'S FUNERAL.

The Toronto Globe gives the following account of the funeral of the late W. R. Stewart: "The remains of the late Wm. R. Stewart, of Macleod, N. W. T., who died suddenly in St. Thomas on Monday, were interred in the Guelph Union cemetery Thursday. The attendance was very large. The services at the house and at the grave were conducted by the Rev. R. W. Ross, pastor of Knox church. The floral offerings were numerous, among them being a floral horseshoe from the Territorial Horse Breeders' association, Calgary, of which the deceased was president; a large broken wheel from the butchers and grocers of Guelph; a beautiful wreath, from the Guelph Fat Stock Club, and a Maltese Cross from an association in Macleod. A large number of friends of the deceased were present from Galt, Puslinch and Guelph townships, Toronto and Cleveland."

—Emery and Brown, the two young Englishmen, who lived in the shack in which Cashel was captured, and who have been charged with harboring an escaped convict, have both been sent up for trial.

—The Sons of England Benefit Society held a very successful meeting in Hounston's hall last night. President E. H. Hill acted as chairman. The meeting was well attended. Six new members were initiated and several applications were received.

—J. M. Swigart, of Folk & Swigart, fur traders, left on the Athabasca Landing stage this morning for the Landing. He will give the contractors for the boats to move his spring's supply of trading goods to the north and will probably return Saturday night.

He was accompanied on his return by his brother and brother's wife and family, who will leave with him in a few days for the Spirit River country. Mr. Brooks reports exceedingly severe weather in Michigan.

—The young people of the Methodist church held their regular meeting of the Epworth League yesterday evening. The subject "Our Mission in West China," was very ably set forth by Dr. Jamieson. In spite of the severity of the weather there was quite a large crowd in attendance. The Dr. was aided in his discourse by maps of his own drawing, which helped to make the address much more interesting.

—Edmonton Illustrated, a handsome production, compiled by C. M. Tait, photographer, Edmonton, is now for sale at his studio on First street. It contains a large number of excellent views of local scenes with short descriptions of local points of interest. A very large number of photographs of residences are shown and on the fly leaf of the booklet is a splendid bird's-eye view of Edmonton. The production is an excellent souvenir of the town and would make a very acceptable present for eastern friends.

—Free Press—Rev. Mr. Lloyd, of the British colony, has received powers of attorney from a great number of intending colonists in the old country, enabling him to secure homesteads for them. Besides individuals and small parties, one large party of five hundred from the north of England are planning to come out about June. They will likely come in by way of Strathcona, and down the river to the Britannia colony, avoiding the long hard trip across country from Saskatoon.

—Leduc Record—Rev. Mr. Lloyd, and around Leduc is significant of the calamity that has befallen our legal representative, Mr. S. E. Bolton, by the loss of his bride in the wreck of the Clallam. We express our sincere sympathy with that gentleman in his sad bereavement. The report cast a gloom over our community and for days news was eagerly sought after by Mr. Bolton's many friends in the hope that the first reports were untrue.

Alberta.—The question of a bonus will be before the Calgary city council and at once. J. H. Dixon, a gentleman who is at the head of the proposed saw factory, has written to the council telling of the proposed scheme and intimating that as they intend to employ 30 or 40 hands, they will ask for a bonus or exemption from taxation for their plant and perhaps dock.

The line when cut can be floated down the river to where they will be required at the Elbow or Battleford crossings of the North Saskatchewan.

—The contracts were let yesterday for the supply of telegraph poles from Edmonton to Athabasca Landing, as follows: from Edmonton to Vermilion, Harry Bell, Sturgeon; from Vermilion to Two Creeks, Jas. McKernan; from Two Creeks to Athabasca Landing, Wood and Wolf, of the Landing. The poles are to be of green tamarac, and are to be delivered 60 yards apart. They are to be 22 feet long, not less than five inches in diameter at the top, straight and sound and peeled throughout. The poles must be laid on the ground by May 1st. The line will be constructed during the coming summer.
